REPUBLICANS DERIDE CONFIDENCE IN SMITH

Idea That Miller Will Run Behind Curran's Vote Regarded as Absurd.

SOCIALISTS ARE FACTOR

Those Who Followed Hyman Expected to Cut Democrats This Time.

TAMMANY FEAR UP-STATE

Rural Women Counted On to Offset Any Gains Made in Larger Centers.

Democratic prophets exultingly predict the election of Al Smith over Gov. Miller to-morrow in terms of 5 to 1 and bet on their judgment at the rate of 5 to 1.

The atmosphere in New York city is surcharged with Democratic vocal confidence that Mr. Smith will carry the five boroughs of the city by a clear majority ranging from 50,000 to 100,000 in the aggregate and that the up-State vote for Gov. Miller will fall far below the minimum figure. Republican managers reject both conclusions. They do not believe Smith's majority will exceed 25,000 in the city districts, with 300,000 as the outside maximum. They are confident that Gov. Miller will bring down to the city line a total not much below the 375,000 that he rolled up two years ago to offset the 317,000 majority then given Smith in the metropolis. There is no disputing the confidence of Mr. Smith's supporters in the city that he will top the record breaking majority of 418,000 given Mayor Hyman over Major Curran in the Mayoralty campaign last year.

The obviously extravagant estimates of the attractiveness of the Democratic candidate have prompted a great many bets on an even money basis that Mr. Smith will carry the five boroughs of the city with a maximum from 400,000 to 500,000. Republican leaders concede that if the Tammany prediction is realized Mr. Smith will win, but they express confidence in the reports of the local leaders of their party that the Democratic candidate will disappoint his friends.

Extravagant Estimates.

Reports emanating from Democratic sources up the State are derided by Republican managers. According to their apparently reliable advices the alleged defection in the party vote in the normal Republican counties up State does not exist in fact. It is admitted by some of the Republican leaders that in the larger centers up State Mr. Smith will receive considerable support which has rarely been given a candidate of Tammany Hall, but they assert that this will be made up by an unusual increase of the vote among women in the rural districts, who do not look with favor on the attempt of Tammany Hall to win the control of the State government.

Democratic confidence that the vote received by Mr. Smith will have an unprecedented majority is based on the belief that Gov. Miller will receive fewer votes than were given Major Curran last year and that the Socialist total will be negligible because thousands of adherents of the last named party will flock to the support of Mr. Smith. Socialist leaders stoutly reject this claim. They assert that the support given Mayor Hyman in the contest last year by the Socialist leaders was due to their approval of his position on the five cent issue, which directly appealed to them. At the same time the Socialist leaders assert that Mr. Smith cannot hope to receive any considerable percentage of this vote.

If the Republican estimates of 375,000 votes for Gov. Miller are correct and the Socialist prediction of 125,000 for Curran is reached, Mr. Smith will receive the total number that will be cast will not exceed 1,025,000. If Mr. Smith should receive 500,000 plurality over Gov. Miller and Mr. Curran he will have to poll approximately 750,000 votes, leaving his two opponents around 250,000, or 25 per cent. of the entire vote. The Republican leaders express complete confidence that the Tammany estimates will be disclosed as not only extravagant but wholly unwarranted.

Still the mere matter of figures has failed to check the enthusiasm of the Tammany supporters of Mr. Smith, who not only think that the battle is "all over but the shouting," but are willing to bet even money that he will win by 150,000.

Party Deals Rumored.

The battle over the Governorship has blanketed to a very large extent the interest in the contests for both Senatorial, Congressional and other State offices. It is the Tammany theory that Smith will be strong enough to carry along with him Roy C. Copeland, the Democratic candidate for the Senate, and the nominees of the party for at least fifteen additional seats for the lower house of Congress and wipe out the Republican control of the Legislature. Despite this confidence Senator Calder seems to stand a very good chance of winning. He will receive a very large vote in Brooklyn plus the up State party support.

Democratic leaders in Brooklyn privately concede this fact. The Senator's managers are urging his friends to refrain from making any distinction between him and Gov. Miller and the other candidates on the Republican State ticket.

It is quite natural that the rivalries and confused conditions generally prevailing should inspire reports of deals designed to promote the chances of individual candidates at the expense of the party. Wagers made by Tammany men have had a great deal to do with the circulation of these reports, which, entirely lacking substance, some of these wagers are that as a result of extensive "trading" the chances of Gov. Smith, Senator Calder, Democratic Surrogate nominee O'Brien and Representative and Democratic General Sessions nominee Morris Koenig will receive support withheld from their party associates.

Promoters of the Coahlan movement do not hesitate to assert that a deal has been negotiated between the Tammany and Republican managers to assure the election of Mr. O'Brien, but they have as yet failed to produce any evidence to support their charge.

Local conditions have encouraged the Democratic State managers to insist that the securing of a victory which they predict for Smith will wipe out Republican control of the State Legislature.

HYMAN CALLS UPON POLICE TO WATCH INVESTIGATORS

Tells Enright He Will Not Stand for People's $100,000 Being Used to Intimidate Voters of City and Warns of State Deputies.

The Mayor called upon Police Commissioner Enright yesterday to take measures to insure the voter against annoyance to-morrow. The Mayor writes that he will not stand for the use of any of the $100,000 appropriated by the Legislature to protect the election law, to intimidate citizens desiring to cast ballots. In part the Mayor's letter reads:

"In a public statement which I made last week I suggested that Abraham S. Gilbert might appoint any number of election day 'watchers' or 'workers' in the guise of special deputy attorneys-general or 'investigators' and that these persons, armed with State power, might even attempt to prevent citizens from casting their honest ballots. Since I made this statement the New York World has disclosed what it charges is a Republican 'plot' to help elect the Republican ticket through the employment of these alleged special

$1,500,000 STAKED ON STATE ELECTION

Fidgety Bettors Resort in Last Hours to Great Deal of Hedging.

More than $1,500,000 has been staked upon the results of to-morrow's gubernatorial election, according to an estimate yesterday by W. L. Darnell & Co., brokers, who handle a large amount of the commissions in Wall Street.

The betting this year has been livelier than in any off year election in twenty years. Small fortunes will change hands.

There has been a great amount of hedging. Darnell & Co. said that many bettors who backed Miller heavily when he was a 2 to 1 and 9 to 5 favorite have reduced their possible losses by hedging on Smith. Also many bettors who took odds of 2 to 1 and 7 to 5 against Smith, being satisfied with paper profits, have turned to Miller as a hedge, laying 2 against 3 or 5 against 3 on his election. Thus they are assured of good profits regardless of the outcome of the balloting.

A certain Wall Street broker who took $25,000 bet on Smith, and a few weeks ago suggested on Saturday in laying off the $50,000 Miller end of the bet at odds of 8 to 5. That transaction netted him $50,000 profit, or 75 per cent. He is now known sporting man and Wall Street plunger, who until last week believed the Republican nominee for Governor was a sure thing. It is credited with having been instrumental in backing Miller down from 2 to 1 to even money on wagers amounting to $200,000. On receiving "definite information" that he had been "shorted" by the market, this big bettor immediately switched to Smith to the extent of $50,000, which he is reported to have laid against $50,000, or at odds of 5 to 6. He now stands to lose $14,000.

A true blue Democrat is credited with having placed bets of $10,000 each that Smith would carry Greater New York by a plurality of 300,000, $10,000, $20,000, $30,000, $40,000 and $50,000. He also bet $5,000 each way that Smith would carry New York State by 100,000, 150,000, 200,000, 250,000 and 300,000.

Mr. Vanderbilt is 29 years old and the son of the late Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, who perished in the Lusitania disaster on May 7, 1915. His mother is Mrs. Paul Pitt Simons. Recently he entered the employ of the United States Trust Company, 45 Wall street, in preparation for a banking career.

CHICAGO CONTRACTOR SHOT IN FEUD REVIVAL

John Scully Slain With Two Sliced Off Shotguns.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—A renewal of the nineteenth ward feud, which has cost about twenty lives in the last two years, came to-night with the assassination of John Scully, a wealthy contractor, who was shot down in the street by two men with sliced off shotguns. The players escaped.

Scully, who was 60 years old and had been active in politics, was walking near his home when neighbors heard shots and found him dead on the sidewalk. Beside him lay the shotguns. Scully's name originally was John Scallitti, but he changed it recently. The nineteenth ward feud followed an Aldermanic election.

Angel Food Campaign of 5,000 Miles Ended

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—A campaign built about her own angel food cake was brought to an end to-night by Mrs. Elizabeth Shroyer, Democratic nominee for County Commissioner.

Traveling more than 5,000 miles, she has raised funds for her election activities by offering her cakes as raffle prizes at bazaars, picnics and similar gatherings.

"Will women vote solidly for women candidates?" was one of the questions expected to be decided by the election, as six women, including Mrs. Shroyer, are running for posts as County Commissioners in Cook county, which includes Chicago.

Explanation by Bedford.

Mr. Bedford made this explanation: "Any party who desires to have recourse to arbitration under the new plan shall address a request to his national committee or, if no national committee exists, through an organization member of the International chamber, giving a statement of the transaction in question and the claims to be arbitrated. If the question is found suitable for arbitration the court shall forward a copy of the request to the other party and invite him to furnish a statement of his case.

"The court will appoint one arbitrator to try each case submitted to it, unless the parties desire the appointment of two arbitrators and one umpire or of three arbitrators.

"The court of arbitration will request the various national committees to furnish the names of technically qualified arbitrators for appointment to hear the cases submitted to it. The arbitration shall take place in the country and town as may be determined by the court.

"Normally the arbitrators shall render their award within sixty days. The arbitrators will have the right, where the law permits, to take evidence in countries other than that in which the arbitration takes place.

Costs Will Be Allocated.

"The award of the arbitrators, in addition to the decision on the merits, shall determine which of the two parties is responsible for the costs, or in what proportion such costs shall be divided between the parties. The arbitrators shall be entitled to reimbursement of expenses, but shall serve gratuitously except, within the discretion of the court, in such countries and industries where fees are customarily allowed for arbitrators.

"The parties shall be in honor bound to carry out the award of the arbitrators.

"Settlement of a dispute by conciliation may be effected by business men bringing the controversy to the attention of the International chamber through the national committees. Such requests for the law permits, to take evidence in countries other than that in which the arbitration takes place.

"After examining all documents submitted by both parties to the controversy and collecting all possible information, the administrative committee, through its chairman, will communicate with the parties, through the national committees, proposing a basis of mutual agreement."

LLOYD GEORGE GOES TO NORTH ENGLAND

Expects to Make Election Tour of Wales Later in Week.

LONDON, Nov. 5 (Associated Press).—Lloyd George will start on his election-touring tour of North England to-morrow, and if his health permits, on a tour of Wales later in the week.

Of the 1,400 and more candidates nominated for Parliament only thirty-two are women, of whom fourteen are standing in the Aquinian Liberal interest, nine for Labor, five Unionists, two National Liberals and two Independents. No woman is returned unopposed.

Emergent discussion of the capital levy continues. John Robert Clynes, Labor leader, in a letter to the Times, points out that it took nearly a century to reduce the national debt by $200,000,000 by sinking fund operations. He asks how many centuries will it take to reduce a debt of more than six billion by such means?

Prices Rise Tenfold Owing to Use of Glands.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 5 (Associated Press).—Chimpanzees raising has become a new and unexpectedly profitable industry in the Belgian colonies of Africa, where several farms are being prepared upon which to breed them on a large scale for the purpose of securing their glands for grafting.

The price of the chimpanzee has multiplied tenfold and more within the last few weeks. Four specimens sell readily today for 2,500 francs. A fortnight ago they brought only from 250 to 300 francs.

COAL CONFISCATED TO SUPPLY SCHOOLS

Residents Also Seize Fuel for Churches at Oliphant, Pa.

OLIPHANT, Pa., Nov. 5.—Headed by policemen, firemen, Councilmen, school directors and Burgess P. B. Dempsey, several thousand citizens of Oliphant Borough, five miles north of here, marched to-day on the Delaware and Hudson Railroad and confiscated four big cars of coal to supply churches and schools that have been without fuel for weeks.

The Federal Government and State Fuel Commission had been accused by the Oliphant people of ignoring their pleas, and to-day they took matters into their own hands and seized the coal.

Trucks, wagons, automobiles and vehicles of every sort were pressed into service to haul the coal to the churches and schools.

The schools had been closed two weeks and 2,800 pupils had been out of their classes because coal companies mining in Oliphant shipped the fuel to other cities and refused to sell any in Oliphant. The Oliphant authorities put an embargo on a train of coal in the borough and are holding it.

While hundreds of citizens shoveled the coal into the trucks the firemen and policemen stood on guard to keep railroad police from interfering. There was no interference from the railroad authorities, however, and tons of coal were being moved rapidly during the day.

No effort was made by the police of the Hudson Coal Company or the Delaware and Hudson companies to stop the taking of the coal. Altogether about 120 tons of coal were removed from cars on the sidings of the Delaware and Hudson Company within the confines of the borough. Police of the Hudson Coal Company say they were powerless to interfere since the coal was not on the property of that company when taken.

ALBERT THOMAS HOPES TO COME TO AMERICA

French Labor Leader Wants U. S. to Join Work Abroad.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1922, by THE NEW YORK HERALD. Paris, Nov. 5.

With the hope of persuading the United States to participate in the work of the International Labor Bureau and indirectly bringing America into the League of Nations, Albert Thomas, former deputy and secretary general of the organization, is reported to be arranging to visit America next year.

Thomas would willingly go to the United States to deliver a series of lectures on the work of the International Labor Bureau and also on the League of Nations, should he receive an invitation from American Chambers of Commerce. It being considered undesirable here for Thomas to accept an invitation from the American Federation of Labor because this would be likely to limit his propaganda work.

The former deputy since his appointment to an important League of Nations post has visited several countries with marked success, and if his trip to America materializes it is certain that he would go with the full assent of the Government.
